X The agency uses less restrictive income and/or resource methodologies than those in effect as of July 16, 1996, as follows:

- allows for exclusion of a child's earnings from resources as long as the child is
 - enrolled and attending school, GED classes, or being home-schooled, regardless of the number of hours, and
 - employed less than 30 hours a week.
- excludes an additional $1000 from a household's resources, which results in allowing a resources limit of $2000. Also, excludes an additional $2000 from resource of households with an aged or disabled member, which results in allowing a resource limit of $3000 for these households.
- allows a fair market value (FMV) exemption for a household's vehicles. The amount of the exemption is the current food stamp FMV exemption as published in the Food and Consumer Service, U.S. Department of Agriculture regulations.

 The agency terminates medical assistance (except for certain pregnant women and children) for individuals who fail to meet TANF work requirements.

X The agency continues to apply the following waivers of provisions of Part A of title IV in effect as of July 16, 1996, or submitted prior to August 22, 1996 and approved by the Secretary on or before July 1, 1997.

- allows removal of the 100-hour rule for meeting the Medicaid deprivation eligibility criteria for two-parent families.
